

The Chapman Family (3.30-4pm)

www.myspace.com/thechapmanfamily

An alternative band from the North of England who merge intensity with chaos providing a distortion fuelled antidote in a musical climate big on apathy and lacking integrity.

Jackie Oates (2.45-3.15pm)

www.jackieoates.co.uk

2009 album 'Hyperboreans' was nominated for the fRoots Critics' Poll Album of the Year and reached number five on the Mojo Folk Album of the Year Chart. Winner of two BBC Folk Awards 2009.

Detroit Social Club (2-2.30pm)

www.detroit-social-club.net

Described as 'analogue experimentation of the modern kind', Detroit Social Club are one of the UK's most talked about new bands and have already supported Primal Scream and Oasis. Debut album 'Existence' is co-produced with Jim Abbiss (Arctic Monkeys, Kasabian, Editors) and released through Fiction/Polydor on 31st May.

Rachelle van Zanten (1.15-1.45pm)

www.rachellevanzanten.com

Rachelle van Zanten's live show is more than just convincing - "as both a songwriter and a slide guitar player van Zanten is tuning the heads of music industry folk the world over." - Nextfest
